

The parish house will be constructed to the rear of the church, immediately adjacent to the present meeting room. It is a modern, open-plan bungalow construction, and aesthetically is in keeping with the design of the church.

Below, you can see the location of the house in relation to the church. The first and second drawings depict the front of the house, with the view from Tower Road in the third drawing.

